

24th AKSE CONFERENCE

17—21 June 2009

CALL FOR PAPERS AND FIRST NOTICE

The Centre for Korean Studies, Leiden University, will host the 24th Biennial Conference of the Association for Korean Studies in Europe from 17-21 June, 2009 at the Holiday Inn Hotel in Leiden, The Netherlands.

Submissions in all areas of Korean Studies are welcome. Proposals should indicate the subject area they wish to be filed under, i.e. Pre-modern History, Modern History, Modern Korean Society, Religions and Philosophy, Linguistics, Anthropology and Folklore, Literature, and Arts and Archaeology.

Both individual and panel proposals can be submitted, though preference goes out to panel proposals. Panels should consist of up to four presenters. The panel organizer should submit a panel proposal, indicating the organizer's name and affiliation, the panel title, key words and a (max) 1,000 word abstract. The panel organizer should also provide a list of panel participants (both presenters and discussant) and their institutional affiliation and 500 word abstracts of the respective panel papers.

Individual paper submissions should state title, key words and subject area, a (max) 1,000 word abstract and the name and affiliation of the presenter.

Paper abstracts can be submitted in English, Korean, French or German.

Proposals must be submitted as an email attachment (preferably Word) by 31 August 2008. Please use your last name as document title (as in DeCeuster.doc)

Following a screening process, those who have submitted paper or panel proposals will be notified by November 2008 whether their paper/panel has been accepted or not.

Full papers should be sent to the Secretary before 30 April 2009.
