Our special guest:

The Ambassador of the Republic of Korea

The British Korean Law Association is a bilateral law association which exists to promote understanding and exchange of knowledge between British and Korean lawyers. It holds a programme of lectures, seminars and social events in London.

The Anglo-Korean Society was founded in 1956 to foster friendship between the UK and the Republic of Korea, and its primary objective is to bring together all those in the UK who are interested in Korean matters and acts as a forum for social and cultural exchange.

Light refreshments will be available in the interval of the Recital.

Cost - £10.00

The net proceeds of ticket sales from this Recital will be divided between the fabric (building repairs) fund of St Vedast Church and the BKLA and the AKS (both of which are non-profit organisations).
